Why we are doomed: humans are bad at sharing - ilamont ===== jsz0 It's not quite as dire as the media has spun it. Determining cause and effect in cultural phenomena is notoriously difficult. It's always fascinating to me how quickly someone can come up with a plausible sounding story in the humanities for why something happened. Surely we are doomed if we are bad at sharing. If we could just figure out how to get people to share more, then maybe we'd be able to avoid complete collapse. ----- ilamont Other links: [ [ [ In the past few weeks, every time I've spoken to a fellow sommel
