The Excellenr Fantasy Action RPG

Review image:It seems like it will work pretty good if you are into RPGs where you need to use menu to check out nice things

- Edits a LOT.
- Meantime they have planned to add more weapons and armor or more for your character and have a weapon map too.
- More on Micro transactions like this one ($7) and that one ($10) to pay they mentioned. That's how they plan to bring in money.
- Got denuvo tested; I think they have (meaning either this thing or the micro transactions above $4 is what they were saying they got denuvo tested on)
- And then after having denuvo tested after some time they apparently could port it to Android. I'm not sure if they still going to that place with $4 micro transaction or not
- They seemed to suggest that the micro transactions is going to be for upgrade only.
- They mentioned that they are going to have US and UK specific ips so it's probably going to take alot of time or money to change.
- I think they have like 12 players joining in test access.
- Here is the forum link - >
- If you guys get any key duplicates at the same time and it shows up twice, I'm not responsible for that anymore. I'm not going to do that anymore.
- They run like anime or something that seemed to suggest that they may add sex scenes in the game or something
