Today is the birthday of the first lord, Prince Zell, so the town is decorated with evergreens. The town's livestock is being bought for a feast. The lord, a child with a bow slung over his shoulder, steps outside with the townfolk. Today there are no guests at the castle, the lord says, and he joins the feast. His father, a man with white hair, takes the death duties on himself and asks the people if anyone is interested in the position of lord of the castle. "I shall!" yells a young girl and the lord smirks. "Alright, I see no one wants the position, but I shall leave the decision to you!" says the lord, acting with a friendly smile. But where did that smile come from? No one would think the lord would bff6bb2d33
